

Tessimon-

Your request for assistance shows an unflattering weakness of character. Are you not Chosen? You must work to resolve the issue of the intruders immediately. Geridik's failure was in spreading his forces too thin. Surely, these infidels cannot stand against the consolidated might of the followers of fire!

In regard to the issue of pay, I see no need to award your gnavels more than the standard wage. There are means beyond gold to ensure loyalty. Perhaps when this issue of the intruders has been resolved we may have a discussion of earnings.

Things move apace. Soon the doomsdayers' plan shall come to fruition and the Dark Master will be freed. I am certain the day is near when we shall stand beside the Champion and celebrate the Master's return. Until that day - remain ever vigilant!
