

Various information gathered from examining the papers in Area 75:

1. The name of the Air Temple's high priest – the man who lives in this room – is Fachish. His assistant is Choranth and she has a half-orc lover named Graud.
2. Fachish plans on rewarding someone named Kellial with the sword of air soon.
3. Fachish reveres the Elder Elemental Eye, but also an entity named Yar-C-Bin.
4. The Outer Fane can only be entered by someone with the blessing of a greater key, and a different key exists for each elemental door into the Outer Fane. Such a blessing lasts until it is used once.
5. Four temples exist in the mines – one for each element. The leader of the Fire Temple is named Tessimon.
6. The temples in the mines compete and even sometimes war against one another. The Air Temple currently fares very poorly in comparison to the other temples.
7. The area that the Air Temple is in, as well as many of the chambers that lie east of it, were once a dwarven living area. Fachish found an old dwarven scroll that indicated that the dwarves had secreted a fabulous diamond called Tulian's Eye in the area somewhere, and he would like to find it to help finance hiring some help for his temple.
